Dear Mrs. Gwin:

I have wanted to write you for some time because of the very encouraging relationship I have with your son, Ken. I have found Ken to be a deeply spiritual young man who is making a great impact on the Abilene Christian campus, as well as in the life of the Highland congregation. On a number of occasions I have referred troubled undergraduate students to Ken. On each occasion he has spent time with these students, demonstrating his own love for Christ and for God and His word. I know personally of many lives who have been immeasurably helped by Ken's special ministry.

We at Highland are thrilled to have him as part of our work here. Ken's ministry is like the ministry of so many other dedicated members of this congregation--each takes its own form and shape as each day and each need arises. He will speak to one of our college classes on November 5 on the very important topic, "Christ, Our High Priest." I wanted you to know of the valuable contributions he is making to the life of the Highland church and of the inspiration he gives to both me and many of his fellow students. Thank you so much for rearing a son like Ken who walks so conscientiously in the steps of Jesus.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
